

ORANGE TREE FOUNDATION
Rah-e-Falah Scholarship Program

EMPOWERING FUTURE LEADERS

Introduction

This document outlines the full details of the scholarship programs being offered by Orange Tree Foundation (OTF) for the universities. The purpose is to guide university administrators and faculty in nominating eligible students for these opportunities.

Rah-e-Falah Scholarship - DOW

- Total seats: 4
 - Fields and Seat Distribution:
Most employable fields
 - Gender Preference: 2 males, 2 females (No such strict gender eligibility)
 - Academic Year: Preferably 3rd year students
 - Eligibility Criteria:
 - High potential candidates (minimum of 3.0 GPA or equivalent to 80% in inter/A levels)
 - Demonstrated financial need and deserving students from flood and rainfall-affected regions of Pakistan, irrespective of family background, race, or religion.
 - Strong and consistent academic performance
 - Please note that there is no requirement of Zakat eligibility
-

Nomination Instructions

- The university is requested to nominate up to 8-10 students.
 - Please ensure all nominations meet the stated program and year requirements.
 - Deadline for applications is: 14th September 2025.
-

Application Process

1. Students must submit the OTF application form. Incomplete applications will not be processed.
 2. Relevant academic and financial documents must be attached.
 3. Ensure all nominated students have applied
 4. Rah-e-Falah Scholarship Form: <https://bit.ly/4fl00dC>
-

Contact

For any questions or to submit nominations, please contact the Admissions team at Orange Tree Foundation: Noureen.amin@orangetreefoundation.org keeping safa@orangetreefoundation.org copied for visibility.