MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between	Dow University of Health Sciences, Karachi	And	Università degli Studi dell'Insubria Via Ravasi 2, 21100 Varese - Italy
	Represented by the Rector Prof. Sajida Qureshi		Represented by the Rector Prof. Maria Pierro

The Università degli Studi dell'Insubria, Varese, via Ravasi, 2, Italy, in the figure of its Rector, prof. Maria Pierro and for the purpose of the signature of this Memorandum of understanding by its Vice Rector for Internationalization, Prof. Barbara Pozzo, and the in the figure of its Registrar, Dr. Ashar Afaq, with the aim of promoting the development of scientific, academic and cultural relationships in the field of the Health Sciences

After submitting, where necessary, the present Agreement to the competent authorities according to the regulations in force in each of the countries concerned, the two parties hereby agree on the following:

ARTICLE 1: Purpose

The two Institutions decide to enter into a reciprocal exchange program of cooperation and coordination in academic teaching and research.

ARTICLE 2: Scope of the cooperation

The partners will identify the areas of common interest and will define the projects they wish to develop together, in conformity with the law in force in each of the countries and within the limits determined by this Agreement. Those projects may include the following activities:

a) the exchange of students
b) the exchange of professors, researchers and administrative staff
c) internships and professional experiences for exchange students
d) the development of joint training programs
e) the development of common research projects
f) the common direction of PhDs and dissertations
g) the writing of shared academic articles

This collaboration can be extended to other areas by simple amendment.

This agreement can be extended to other universities, if both universities agree.

ARTICLE 3: Agreement implementation

Any collaborative project, activity or program developed within the framework of this Agreement not included in the following articles shall be subject of an implementing agreement signed by both parties that will include:

a) the concerned institutions and the project coordinator for each institution

b) the terms and conditions of the programmed activities
c) the obligations and the responsibilities of both parties
d) budgets and sources of funding for planned activities
e) Trademarks or logos, if any, that could be used in advertising or promotional material of planned activities.

ARTICLE 4: Financial arrangement

- Every project or activity provided by a separate agreement implementing the present Agreement is dependent on the availability of funds and will be funded separately.

- Resources necessary for the implementation of any project or activity will be negotiated by the coordinators with the persons they consider necessary.

- Regarding resources available, the partners will have the possibility to develop activities funded by their own resources.

ARTICLE 5: Implementation mobility

- As far as the laws and regulations pertaining in each of the countries and their material possibilities allow, both parties agree to exchange academic staff to teach or lecture or to participate in research activities in view of the development of a project relating to this agreement.

- The academic staff involved in exchanges, regulated by this present agreement, will continue to receive their salaries paid by their respective university and enjoy all the rights attached to their activity, as far as the laws and regulations pertaining in each country allow.

ARTICLE 6: Thesis supervision

- The staff members qualified to supervise theses at the Dow University of Health Sciences, Karachi and at the University of Insubria may be associated in thesis supervision in the other university, on signing a specific convention.

- The contracting institutions may award the student either a Ph. D. diploma issued by each institution or, after the approval of both the Scientifics committee a joint Ph.D. diploma.

ARTICLE 7: Students mobility

a) The Dow University of Health Sciences, Karachi and the University of Insubria can proceed within the limit of their means and student intake capacity, to reciprocal exchanges of students for one or two semesters. "Exchange student" is the status of concerned students and this must be understood that these exchanges do not lead to the award of a diploma in the host University. The implementation of a double degree will indeed require a specific agreement.

b) The establishment of a prior learning agreement between the parties concerned, specifying the educational framework of the exchange of the student is necessary for any exchange. Both contracting parties will do their utmost to assure that the courses attended in the receiving institution may be integrated as a recognized part of the curriculum leading of the degree or the diploma pursue by the student in his origin institution.

c) Exchange students will pay the tuition to their home university and will be exempt from tuition fees in the host institution. Furthermore, students in mobility will have to be insured against risks (accident, disease, civil responsibility) and against an eventual repatriation they could incur during their stay in the receiving university.

d) On the basis of mutually established agreements and procedures, student applications will be managed according to the respective selection procedures set by each university, the contents of the study programs will be established and agreed upon by the respective teaching authorities, which are responsible for monitoring compliance and the measures agreed.

e) The organization of internships and professional experiences for students takes place on the basis of further agreements with third parties, typically operators in the area they belong to.

f) For the aforementioned activities, travel, accommodation and subsistence expenses (with the exception of internships) and any health, insurance and legal expenses remain the responsibility of the visiting subjects.

g) The host university undertakes to collaborate in carrying out the administrative procedures necessary for obtaining a residence permit for hosted students.

h) This agreement maintains the full autonomy of each university and does not imply any mutual constraint for its implementation.

ARTICLE 8: Intellectual property rights and publication

If any new knowledge is jointly discovered by the staff of the two partners (insofar as none of the two partners could reasonably claim the full propriety) within the framework of the implementation of the present agreement, this new knowledge will be common propriety, equally allocated/shared between the two parties, unless they decide it in another way.

The two partners reserve the right to make together the most of this new knowledge and that in conformity with the laws and regulations in force in each of the countries.

In view to this, the contracting parties may collaborate in publishing in national or international academic journals. Any unpublished information or results obtained conjointly may not be divulged to any third party, unless there is prior agreement between the two contracting parties.

Each of the partners keeps full propriety over previous knowledge and any new knowledge obtained on their own. Should cases or concerns arise, specific agreements concerning intellectual property of research and exploitation, shall be signed.

ARTICLE 9: Duration and renewal

The present agreement, which takes force upon its signature by the representative of the two parties, is concluded for a period of 5 (five) years subject to termination with 6 (six) months' notice, without prejudice to outgoing actions. In case of renewal, the same procedure of submission to the competent national authorities is to be followed.

ARTICLE 10: Termination and suspension

This Agreement may be terminated wholly or one of its amendments by either party by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt, sent to the other partner, with a 6-month prior notice. However, the parties commit themselves to achieving the undertaken activities, prior to the agreement termination.

In any event, the enrolled students' rights should be protected without prejudice to ongoing actions. In this case, termination will take effect at the end of the exam period after the meeting of the corresponding board of examiners. The terminating party, shall give written notice to the other party 60 (sixty) days before the aforesaid exam period.

ARTICLE 11: Settlement of disputes

Both parties will try to reach an amicable solution within sixty (60) days of receiving a written settlement request for any disagreement relating to the present protocol of cooperation. When no amicable solution can be reached, the disagreement will be submitted to mediation and failing this to the arbitration tribunal of Varese, to which both parties have agreed to adhere. The disagreement will then be settled by three judges.

ARTICLE 12: Responsibilities

Coordinators at the respective institutions are responsible for managing the programs implemented by this Agreement and may be asked to provide a report annually to their respective institutions. The coordinators, appointed among the academic staff over a renewal period of five years, shall be appointed by each university.

Each party will be held responsible if it fails to implement satisfactorily its provisions. A contracting party will only be held responsible in case of breach of contract.

Both contracting parties guarantee each other against any legal action from the staff, suppliers and service providers for whom the other party is personally responsible under the mutual obligations defined in this convention

ARTICLE 13: Amendments

The articles of the present agreement may be amended or modified in writing by mutual consent.

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is being signed on April 21, 2025

Between

University of Gwadar (UG), Gwadar, Balochistan (hereinafter referred to as "UG"), a public sector university in Balochistan, Pakistan, established as an autonomous institution on 25th October 2021, following its transition from a sub-campus of the University of Turbat (September 2016 - October 2021). The university, acting through its Registrar, has its main campus in Gwadar, Balochistan, which expression shall, where the context permits, include its successors-in-interest, executors, agents, legal representatives, and permitted assigns, of the FIRST PART;

And

Dow University of Health Sciences, Karachi (hereinafter referred to as "DUHS"), a premier institute of health sciences in Pakistan, established under the Dow University of Health Sciences Act 2004, with its main campus located at Baba-e-Urdu Road, Karachi 74200, acting through its Registrar and entering into this MoU on behalf of its Institute of Business Health & Management at Ojha Campus, SUPARCO Road, Gulzar-e-Hijri, Scheme 33, Karachi, which expression shall, where the context permits, include its successors-in-interest, executors, agents, legal representatives, and permitted assigns, of the SECOND PART.

Definitions

- The term "Parties" refers collectively to University of Gwadar, Gwadar, Balochistan (UG) and Dow University of Health Sciences, Karachi (DUHS).
- The term "Party" refers individually to either University of Gwadar, Gwadar, Balochistan (UG), or Dow University of Health Sciences, Karachi (DUHS), as the context requires.

Purpose of the MoU

This MoU serves as a foundation for establishing academic linkages and collaborative activities between UG and DUHS. The terms of collaboration are outlined as follows:

Areas of Collaboration

This MOU will form the basis for academic linkages and collaborations. It also sets forth the areas of collaboration between the parties as follows:

1. Formulate and implement strategies for fostering academic collaboration between DUHS and UG through diverse platforms.
2. Develop and deliver joint courses through online platforms, enabling faculty members from both UG and DUHS to engage in collaborative teaching, particularly in interdisciplinary fields. Faculty members will be identified and paired accordingly for effective knowledge exchange.
3. Leverage structured meetings to design course syllabi, frameworks, and learning outcomes to ensure comprehensive academic alignment.
4. Organize and participate in academic events such as symposiums, webinars, conferences, online workshops, colloquiums, and professional development programs.
5. Collaborate on community-driven initiatives aimed at addressing pressing social and environmental challenges, promoting sustainability, and fostering inclusivity and equality.
6. Encourage joint research initiatives and co-authored publications to enhance academic and scientific contributions.
7. Facilitate faculty and student exchange programs to promote cross-institutional learning and professional growth.
8. Establish mechanisms for the mutual sharing of non-financial resources to optimize institutional support and collaboration.

Miscellaneous Provisions

1. Duration and Renewal

- This MoU shall remain in effect from April 21, 2025, to April 20, 2026.
- Upon expiration, both parties may review the terms and decide whether to renew, amend, or terminate the agreement.

2. Termination

- Either party may terminate this MoU by providing at least six (6) weeks' prior written notice to the other party.
- During the notice period, both parties shall ensure the orderly completion of ongoing projects.

3. Dispute Resolution

- Any dispute arising under this MoU shall be resolved amicably through mutual discussions. If unresolved, the dispute may be referred to arbitration under the Arbitration Act, 1940, of Pakistan, with each party bearing its own costs.

4. Confidentiality

- Both parties agree to maintain confidentiality regarding any non-public or sensitive information disclosed during the collaboration, except as required by law.

5. Indemnification

- Each party agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the other from any claims, liabilities, damages, or expenses resulting from its actions under this MoU, except in cases of fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence.

6. Amendments

- Any modifications to this MoU shall be made in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties.

7. Publicity and Branding

- Neither party shall use the name, emblem, or logo of the other in any publicity, marketing, or promotional material without prior written consent.

8. Legal Nature of the MoU

- The parties agree that this Memorandum of Understanding is not a formal legal agreement giving rise to any legal relationship, rights, duties, or consequences, but it is only an expression and record of the purpose of the parties regarding which the parties will continue to collaborate.

9. Force Majeure

- Neither party shall be held liable for delays or failure to perform obligations under this MoU due to events beyond their reasonable control, including acts of God, natural disasters, war, terrorism, or other unforeseen circumstances.

10. Severability

- If any provision of this MoU is deemed unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

FOR CLINICAL AFFILIATION OF BSN AND BSM STUDENTS

DOW UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES

KOOHI GOTH COLLEGE OF NURSING & MIDWIFERY

This Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as "MoU") is made and entered into at Karachi on this 05 day of June, 2025:

BY AND BETWEEN:

DOW UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES, a statutory body corporate duly constituted under the Dow University of Health Sciences Act, 2004, having its Head Office at Baba-e-Urdu Road, Karachi, Sindh, Pakistan, acting through its duly authorized representative, the Registrar (hereinafter referred to as "DUHS", which expression shall, unless repugnant to the context, include its successors-in-interest, legal representatives, and assigns), of the First Part;

AND

KOOHI GOTH COLLEGE OF NURSING & MIDWIFERY, a constituent institution of Malir University of Science & Technology, having its Office located at Koohi Goth Hospital, Deh Landhi, Bin Qasim Town, Karachi, through its duly authorized representative Principal (hereinafter referred to as "KGCNM", which expression shall, unless repugnant to the context, include its successors-in-interest, legal representatives, and assigns), of the Second Part.

(DUHS and KGCNM are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Parties" and individually as a "Party").

KOOHI GOTH COLLEGE OF NURSING & MIDWIFERY KGCNM

Dow University of Health Sciences Registrar Karachi

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
SCOPE AND OBJECTIVES

1.1 This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) establishes a collaborative framework for clinical affiliation between Dow University of Health Sciences (DUHS) and Karachi General College of Nursing and Midwifery (KGCNM) to facilitate clinical rotations for students enrolled in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) and Bachelor of Science in Midwifery (BSM) programs at both institutions.

1.2 The objective of this partnership is to provide students from both DUHS and KGCNM with access to diverse clinical settings and practical training opportunities at each other's designated facilities, thereby enriching their academic learning and professional competencies.

1.3 Clinical rotations under this MoU shall be structured to align with the academic curricula, regulatory standards of the Pakistan Nursing and Midwifery Council (PNMC), and institutional policies of both DUHS and KGCNM, ensuring consistency, safety, and educational effectiveness.

1.4 The collaboration shall emphasize mutual respect, coordination, and adherence to best practices in clinical education to foster a high standard of healthcare training and contribute to the professional development of nursing and midwifery students from both Parties.

ARTICLE II
DURATION AND RENEWAL

2.1 This MoU shall remain valid and enforceable for a period of Four (04) years commencing from the date of execution.

2.2 Upon expiry, the MoU may be renewed for a further term by mutual written consent of the Parties.

ARTICLE III
JOINT OBLIGATIONS OF DUHS AND KGCNM

3.1 Both DUHS and KGCNM agree to facilitate mutual student exchange for clinical placements, subject to institutional capacity, scheduling constraints, and academic requirements.

3.2 Each party shall submit a formal written request to the concerned Head of the receiving institution at least four (04) weeks prior to any proposed clinical placement. The request shall specify the number of students along with their supervisor.

3.3 Each party shall ensure that their students are accompanied and supervised by duly qualified clinical instructors from their own faculty, who shall remain responsible for the students during the rotation period.

3.4 Both DUHS and KGCNM agree that all students shall adhere to the host institution's administrative policies, code of conduct, professional ethics, patient confidentiality norms, safety protocols, and dress code during the rotation.

3.5 Each institution shall bear its own financial liabilities associated with the clinical training of its students, including but not limited to faculty supervision costs and consumables, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.

3.6 The host institution shall not be under any obligation to pay stipends, salaries, or other financial compensation to the students or faculty members of the visiting institution.

3.7 The host institution reserves the right to withdraw access or suspend any visiting student or instructor for misconduct, breach of rules, or any act deemed detrimental to patient safety or institutional decorum, with prior intimation to the sending institution.

3.8 Upon successful completion of the clinical rotation, the host institution may issue a certificate or letter of completion to the visiting students, subject to satisfactory performance.

ARTICLE IV
TERMINATION

4.1 This MoU may be terminated by either Party by providing thirty (30) days' prior written notice, without assigning any reason.

4.2 Notwithstanding termination, any ongoing student rotation shall be allowed to complete its scheduled duration unless otherwise mutually decided.

ARTICLE V
NO EMPLOYMENT OR LEGAL PARTNERSHIP

5.1 Nothing in this MoU shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, employer-employee relationship, or any legal obligation other than expressly stated herein.

5.2 Neither Party shall use the name, logo, or insignia of the other for any promotional purpose without prior written consent.

ARTICLE VI
GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

6.1 This MoU shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan.

6.2 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this MoU shall be resolved amicably through mutual consultation. Failing such resolution within thirty (30) days, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration under the Arbitration Act, 1940, by a sole arbitrator mutually appointed by the Parties.

ARTICLE VII
ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND AMENDMENT

7.1 This MoU constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes all previous oral or written agreements, communications, and representations.

7.2 No amendment, alteration, or variation to this MoU shall be effective unless made in writing and duly signed by authorized representatives of both Parties.
